Taylor of Henderson, Texas, and Dr. O. B. Taylor of Hondo, and many relatives and friends. His parents preceded him in death by several years, his mother having been laid to rest on the same date of Harry's death, seven years ago.

Harry, as he was known to every one whose acqueintance he made, was of a happy, jovial disposition and had many friends here where he grew up from babyhood to vigorous young manhood. It is peculiarly sad that a life so full of promise must be sacrificed just when it should have been reaching its prime of usefulness and enjoyment of manhoods achievements. His mourning relatives, and especially the bereaved companion and fatherless little daughter, have the heartfelt sympathy of all who know them.

MORE LOANS APPROVED.

The Medina County Committee of the Government Production Loans reports 32 additional loans approved since its report last week, making the total approvals up to date, 42 loans aggregating $7,215.00 and leaving only 11 applications to be acted upon.

While this is a fair record for the County, the Committee feels that there are many more farmers who are in need of assistance but who have not been reached, or have had any opportunity to get full information about these Government Loans. They suggest that any one who is in need of this aid and is not entirely clear as to the provisions of the law governing these loans to get in as soon as possible, because applications will only be received up to Aprl 30, 1932. After that date it will be too late to file applications.

EAST ZONE CHAMPIONS.

From The Owl.

The Hondo Owls defeated the Pearsall Mavericks for the championship of the East Zone of this district in a one-sided game that ended 17 to 1.

The Owls opened the game up with a bang, taking five hits off of Pearsall's pitcher in the first inning, that resulted in seven runs. Three more runs were scored in the second inming off one hit and several errors. One run was scored in the fourth inming, one in the fifth, one in the seventh, one in the eighth, and three in the ninth. The Mavericks made their lone run in the first inning.

The score by innings was as fol-

Billy Belding and Jane Haley were in Stalnard's jewelry store and had just made the selection of Jane's engagement ring. It was New Year's Eve and they were to start the New Year an affianced pair,

Jane turned from the showcase to her companion: "Why, what is the matter, Billy?"

"I've lost it!"

"Lost what?"

"I had five hundred dollars Christmas club savings in my inside overcoat pocket. It isn't there. It's gone, and that's that. Mr. Stalnard," said Billy dejectedly, "we'll have to let it to for the present.

Jane turned to the jeweler. "You'll let us have it anyway, won't you? Billy can soon pay for it. Mr. Stalnard was very nice. "Why, Dinner ended, Jane reminded Billy of the passing time, and he hurries upstairs for his things.

When they returned, Uncle Walker, Aunt Anne, and Jack and Hazel, their son and daughter, arose to view the new purchase and offer felicitations. An observing one might have caught Uncle Walker giving Jane a sly wink, which she as slyly returned.

Billy was downcast, and Jane at least seemed so.

Aunt Anne exclaimed: "Why, Billy, what is wrong? Did Jane back out?" "Not as bad as that, but almost. I have lost the money I intended to buy

TEETHING makes HIM FUSSY

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby imfortable is to see that little bowels do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly. For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcolics—is absolutely harmless. When your baby is fretful with teething or a food upset, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Be sure you get genuine Castoria with the name:

the ring with." He hesitated.

Jane took a seat and assumed a disappointed but resigued air. Uncle Walker seated himself by Billy. "Do you and Jane think you can make a go of it on your salaryhow much is it?"

It all figured out-haven't we, Jane?" "Oh. Yes!"

"Could you get along and buy a little home, too, if you had seventyfive?"

Billy and Jane exchanged wondering glances "Yes, I think so. Don't you, Jane?"

"Oh, yes!" Jane was positive. "Tomorrow, then," said Uncle Walker, "you come to Haley Brothers-if your firm will release you then-if not tomorrow, then as soon as you can get away.

"But-" Billy began.

"Wait a minute. Your cash salary will be seventy-five dollars a week, and a credit of twenty-five a week on five thousand dollars' worth of the common stock of Haley Brothers, which I shall set aside for you. That will make a hundred a week. Now go back to Stalnard's and get your ring." He handed Billy an envelope. "This was under the bed up in your room." He slipped another wink to Jane.

Billy recovered surprisingly promptly, but remarked that the store would
